Indemnity For Lives of 32 Chinese Demanded Of British Consul

By H. H. STANSBURY
(By Universal Service)
LONDON, March 29.—An ultimatum was delivered to the British at Wuhu tonight, according to a dispatch from the Shanghai correspondent of the Central News tonight.

The report states that the Chinese commissioner at Wuhu demands indemnity from the British for the lives of 35 Chinese who, he declares, were drowned when their boat was rammed by a British ship.

The Chinese demand was made to the British consul. The Chinese commissioner, it is said, threatens, if the money is not paid, to seize the captain of a British steamer and hold him as hostage.

Demand Withdrawn
The ultimatum, according to reports, follows the demand by the Chinese for the withdrawal of British warships and sailors from Wuhu.

Dispatches earlier this evening indicated that the situation at Wuhu was desperate, owing largely to the activities of agitators, who are inciting the native Chinese to massacre the foreign residents.

Evacuation Continues
The evacuation of foreigners is continuing, the advices state. The situation in Shanghai is quiet, according to reports received here today.

Yangtze Valley Is Center Of Trouble Area In War Swept China

(By Universal Service)
PEKING, March 29.—The American Catholic Mission at Pichau, in southern Kwangtung, has been looted and the priests are fleeing as refugees to Cachow, it is reported here today.

The legation announces that the evacuation of Americans is proceeding in southern Shantung, Anhwei and northern Honan, owing to the danger attending the conflict between the northern and southern forces.

MAKE EFFORT TO CLEAR YANGTZE VALLEY
SHANGHAI, March 29.—The Yangtze valley, and all that section of China now occupied by the Cantonese forces, is being rapidly evacuated by Americans and other foreigners.

The situation today is serious. A tremendous wave of intense anti-foreign feeling is sweeping the country, which is aflame with bitter sentiment.

The Yangtze river is patrolled by American warships. Every effort is being made to clear the (Continued on Page 5)

Disaster Hero Gets Fine For Traffic Charge

Charged with reckless driving, Don Armeline, hero of the Orinda tunnel catastrophe, last Thursday night, was fined $100 and had his operator's license revoked for a year, when he appeared before Police Judge E. J. Tyrrell of Oakland, yesterday.

Complaint to the charge was sworn to by Dr. W. T. Lum, 1200 Antonio avenue, Alameda, as the result of a crash between his car and that of Armeline's February 27 last.

Armeline gained state wide publicity for his courage upon entering the tunnel at the risk of his life to locate the bodies of the ten victims drowned by the bursting of a diverting dam which allowed the flood waters of San Pablo creek to pour into the bore.

All Americans In Rioting Provinces Have Been Warned to Leave

(By WILLIAM P. FLYTHE
(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, March 29.—Upwards of 200 Americans are cut off from rescue in inland Chinese towns, it was learned officially today.

Grave fears are felt for their safety, since reports to the state and navy departments indicated that anti-foreign outrages are spreading rapidly.

Mostly Missionaries
They are for the most part missionaries who failed to heed repeated warnings of American representatives in China to evacuate to the seacoast and river ports.

It was definitely learned that they must now make their way to safety as best they can, if still alive, as it is no longer possible for American rescue forces to reach them.

The President and his cabinet at the regular meeting this morning viewed the situation with grave concern. It was said that everything possible would be done for the protection of Americans. It was explained in this connection with American forces there (Continued on Page Five)

HE OUGHT TO GIVE HIMSELF UP FOR GOOD

(By Universal Service)
BERLIN, March 29.—In a statement made to newspaper correspondents at Doorn on behalf of the former German emperor, it was said that he had no intention whatever of asking permission to return to his fatherland under the present form of government.

Wilhelm, it is stated, deems it incompatible with his dignity, and illogical for him, who still regards himself as the German emperor, to beg a Republican government to allow him to come back to Germany.

BIRTH CERTIFICATES
Birth certificates filed with the city health department yesterday revealed that a son named Benjamin was born to Mr. and Mrs. Salvador Martinez, of Fourteenth street, San Pablo, March 22; and a girl named Clara, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Duca, of Yuba avenue, San Pablo, March 24.

PLANE RESCUES ILL MAN AFTER 600 MILE TRIP

Dramatic Rescue Effected On Frozen Plains Of Arctic

(By Universal Service)
SEWARD, Alaska, March 29.—A man desperately ill on Saint Lawrence Island, 30 miles from the Siberian boundary and 600 miles from Point Barrow, was saved from possible death by the arrival of an airplane which removed him to Nome. It was learned here today.

Learning that a man, alone and ill with no hope of medical aid reaching him, Captain George H. Wilkins, heading a polar expedition now at Point Barrow, ordered Pilot Joe Crosson to rescue him.

Flying alone over the "great white silence" of the Arctic regions, Crosson landed his super-swallow plane within a short distance of where the man lay ill.

After much difficulty, Crosson placed the man in his plane, made him as comfortable as possible and hopped off, flying over the frozen Bering sea for Nome.

The "mercy flight" was made without incident. The name of the sick man has not been learned.

Former Richmond Newspaper Man To Wed in L.A.

Announcement of the approaching marriage of Frank Geritz, former well known Richmond newspaper man, to Miss Edith, prominent Los Angeles musician, for April 21, was received in Richmond yesterday with the return of Miss Azalea Sanford, from the southern city.

Since leaving Richmond Geritz has won recognition throughout the United States for his etchings and wood blocks. He has exhibited in the leading galleries of New York, Chicago, and other cities.

Scout Committees Of County Will Meet Here Today

To discuss the movement to get behind the Boy Scouts of the country in an organized way, boy scout committees from virtually every city in Contra Costa county will gather in the Richmond Elks lodge rooms this evening, at 8 o'clock. It was announced yesterday by Claude E. Clark, chairman of the Lions Scout committee. Clark will preside at the session.

It is expected that seventy-five persons from Richmond, Walnut Creek, Concord, Pittsburg, Antioch, Bay Point, Brentwood, Byron, Martinez, Crockett, Pinole and Hercules, will attend the meeting.

JACKSON ASKS FOR PROBATION

MARTINEZ, March 29.—W. R. Jackson, of San Francisco, upon entering a plea of guilty to a charge of burglary at the Princeton Knitting Mills, in Richmond in January, requested probation. The case was turned over to Probation Officer Dr. T. A. Boyer of a report April 11. S. J. Thevenin, Jackson's accomplice in the disposal of the $800 worth of loot, is out on a suspended jail sentence.

CALIFORNIA SECOND IN AUTOS

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, March 29.—Twenty-two million motor vehicles were registered in the United States in 1926, an increase of 10.3 per cent or slightly more than 2,000,000 vehicles over the preceding year.

These figures were announced today based on reports just received from state registration agencies by the bureau of public roads of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

New York led all the states with 1,815,131 registrations and $28,786,121 in receipts. California came second with 1,600,175 registrations and $8,477,233 in receipts. Ohio was third with 1,480,246 registrations.

Local Bills Close Lodge Year At Meet

Richmond lodge of Elks closed their lodge year last night with one of the largest meetings of the term, when the city and county officials officiated and presented the program.

A. C. Pades, city clerk, was chairman of the evening.

Brick, Morse and his colleagues put on a snappy show, replete with song hits, vaudeville numbers, specialty acts, and character sketches. The ensemble singing of the Elks club was exceptionally good, the only fault being that it did not last long enough to please the music-loving Elks present.

Exalted Ruler James Steward presided for the last time and received congratulations on all sides for the meritorious manner in which he has conducted his office and for the unflagging zeal with which he has promoted the high standards of the Elks brotherhood. Banners were on the table for all and any who might have been hungry.

Next Tuesday night the new officers will be installed.

MANAGUA, March 29.—Unconfirmed reports reaching here tonight indicate that the Liberal forces clashed with United States marines near Leon. The rebels were repelled by the Americans, the report stated.

Sixth Regiment Of U. S. Marines Leave For West

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, March 29.—The Sixth regiment of marines today began their long journey to Shanghai, where they will go into action if necessary to protect American lives.

The first unit left Quantico, Va., main base at the Atlantic, at 2:15 this afternoon. This was the airplane unit; several express cars went with a comparatively small crew of men to carry the airplanes and equipment.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon two more trains left Quantico. The trains will follow the southern route to New Orleans, Houston, Texas, and thence to San Diego. Four trains with marines will get under way tomorrow at Philadelphia and proceed at approximately the same hour. One more train will leave Quantico and one will leave Paris Island, S. C.

The trains have been distributed over various railroads to avoid congestion or delay in their rush to reach San Diego in time to board the transport Henderson Sunday. The Sixth expects to sail Monday and to reach Shanghai May 1. There are approximately 1,500 men in the regiment, all selected because of previous experience and good military record.

MASSACRE IN CHINA FEARED BY PROFESSOR

(By Universal Service)
NEW YORK, March 29.—Warning of the possible massacre in China of white residents whose numbers total about 40,000 was voiced here today by Upton Close, noted authority on Asiatic affairs and member of the faculty of the University of Washington in Seattle.

Close has just completed a month's conference here and in Washington with high navy and army officials, members of congress and attaches of the state department's bureau of far eastern affairs.

"The gunboats of the white nations bombarding Chinese cities are shooting where they cannot see," said Mr. Close. "They only bring on the crisis they are sent to avoid."

Close declared that the "end of the white men's world is very imminent if Russo-Asiatic relations continue as they are now tending. "The center of the world has been shifted by the Chinese uprising from the Atlantic to the Pacific basin. The United States has succeeded Great Britain as the spokesman of western civilization, and the British are glad to be rid of the job."

ASKS POLICE PROTECTION AND GETS IT!

"Protection's what I want. When I go to see my wife."

And here it is," the coppers said. And locked him up for life. Louis Heatley, Richmond electric goods dealer, decided that the world and his wife were too much for him, after a cordial reception given him at the Alameda police department. Heatley called on the police before making a call upon his estranged wife, from whom he is now seeking a divorce. He wanted police protection during the call.

The police cooperated to the nth degree, and lodged him in the city jail, for his wife Mrs. Christine Heatley had already put in an appearance charging battery on the occasion of his last visit. He is still receiving protection, for he was unable to raise the $250 bail money demanded.

COAL MINES WILL CLOSE AT MIDNIGHT ON THURSDAY

Bituminous Operators In East Refuse To Compromise

CHICAGO, March 29.—With but few exceptions, all of the unionized bituminous coal mines of the country, employing approximately 350,000 men, will close down indefinitely at midnight March 31, notwithstanding the resolution adopted by the policy committee of the United Mine Workers of America at Indianapolis Monday, permitting the continued operation of mines under the terms of the old contract.

This was made known here today by R. Rice Miller, president of the Illinois Coal Operators' association, who has been in communication with the coal operators of the other states comprising the central competitive field.

No Compromise
Mr. Miller said he had no doubt but that the other soft coal operators would stand firm against any compromise with the union at this time. To continue working the mines under the terms of the old agreement, Mr. Miller said, would permit John L. Lewis, president of the miners' union, and his policy committee to dilly-dally along indefinitely without an agreement with the operators.

Then when he caught the operators in a pinch, after the present stupendous surplus stock is exhausted and with winter coming on, he would be in a position to force a contract favorable to the union, but not to the coal provided. (Continued on Page 8)

LIONS TELL OF LIFE SECRETS AT LUNCHEON

Deep and dark secrets were revealed at yesterday's session of the Lions' club, when four self-sacrificing members consented to "tell all," and poured out an interesting resume of their lives. Those who gripped their audience with the afore-mentioned recital were M. E. Hazleton, Clint Smith, H. H. Mylander, and Ivan Conn. John Miller unassumingly refused to divulge the facts of his autobiography but told the Lions of the opportunities existing in Richmond. Mose Moch presided as chairman of the day and arranged the unusual program. Claude Clark introduced Judge Barber of Trinity talk, who responded with a short talk.

Warrant Issued For Oaklander

A warrant for the arrest of Dewitt C. Hoffinger, 535 Twenty-first street, Oakland, has been issued by Justice of the Peace John Roth, on the complaint of C. H. Nisson, state traffic officer who charges the man with driving 50 miles an hour on the public highway.

Search Continues For Seaman's Body

Continued search for the body of Charles J. Stahl, sailor on the steamer La Parrisma, who lost his life in the bay near the Union Oil wharf at Oleum Monday, has failed to find the drowned man. Coroner Aubrey Wilson reported last night.

Film Star Recovers From Auto Accident

LOS ANGELES, March 29.—Nancy Lee, film actress who was struck by an automobile four months ago and so seriously injured that it was feared she would be paralyzed for life, walked again today for the first time since the accident. Her physician said he expected a complete recovery.

Berkeleyan Makes 5 Sunday Dates With Calabozo

A sometimes unappreciated but none the less active force in community betterment is the "dating bureau" which works out of Police Judge C. F. Odell's court. Dates may be secured at the cost of a slight pressure on the accelerator while on one of Richmond's boulevards.

F. Ahlquist, of Berkeley, will spend the next five Sundays in the city jail in Richmond as the result of a 52 mile clip on Cutting boulevard. He secured his "date" in Judge Odell's court yesterday morning.

The policy of "no date—then (he) is the acting policy of the bureau. C. F. Odell, of Oakland paid $80 rather than hang repining glances on the cold, cold bars, where Sunday sunshine calls to motorists who do not speed.

EFFICIENT RADICALISM

This is the day of efficiency in propaganda in business. And it is a note-worthy fact that the one-time illogical impractical socialist who dreamed of Utopia has been displaced by the radical who often shows a political effectiveness far more deadly than that of his conservative adversary. This is one menace of communism which is often overlooked by the average observer. Attention to this fact was recently called by O. L. Smith, former Attorney General of Michigan, who prosecuted the famous case against Charles E. Ruthenberg and other radicals a few years ago. In addressing a recent meeting of a branch of the National Metal Trades Association at Cincinnati, Mr. Smith said:

"Communism and socialism have reached into a stratum of society where the bleary-eyed idle dreamer is not to be found. In his place is a clear-minded, calculating individual, many trained and educated in our best universities, who have taken this insidious move to heart and are propagating its growth.

"Every communist is a pacifist because he hopes that through his pernicious propaganda he can get others to join him to bring about a condition for the outlawing of policing organizations. By this condition the communist then hopes to take command by bringing about a state of rebellion and establishing their own form of government."

Here are some thoughts worth considering. The Red of today even in America is no longer a Utopian dreamer. He has a keen political sense, is well financed and knows the value of organization and publicity. He uses the printing press and the political machine instead of the soap box and finds his modern methods a thousand times more effective.

Personal Health Service

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Signed letters pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Letters should be brief and written in ink. Owing to the large number of letters received, only a few can be answered. No reply can be made to queries not conforming to instructions. Address: Dr. William Brady, in care of this newspaper. Name your city on your return envelope. Don't say "city."

ON THE TRAIL OF IMMUNITY

Before you read this, benighted friend, know that the author believes exposure to cold or wet never causes illness of any kind. Now if you want to hear the rest of it, listen. It is necessary in a discussion of this question, to pitch tradition, legend, fancy and superstition into the scrap bucket and start with a clear field. Empirical evidence, deduction drawn from experience, has some weight. Circumstantial evidence has none.

If a man goes out for a walk on a damp or rainy day without his overcoat and gets his feet wet and presently develops sniffles or cough or something, that's circumstantial evidence. It is circumstantial because it just happens as a coincidence. The man is impressed with the coincidence because he has gone out for a walk on many a rainy or damp day without his rubbers on and no indisposition followed. If indisposition or illness invariably or even usually followed such a wetting of the feet, that would be empirical evidence, and it would be reasonable and fair to deduce therefrom the belief that wetting of the feet has something to do with such illness. If a man invariably or even usually contracted such indisposition or illness from going out without his rubbers on, he would be such a darn fool to venture out without his rubbers on that it would seem just as well for us to assure him there is no harm in it, since we believe in the survival of the fittest.

The old time doctors and some of our present public health administrators have said a good deal about this and that influence "lowering resistance." This is an invention which beguiles the lay mind and relieves the old time doctor or health officer of an embarrassing predicament. There is no scientific ground for the theory that any such condition or influence as fatigue, exposure to cold or wet, renders an individual more susceptible to infection. The theory is based wholly upon circumstantial evidence. Empirical evidence, actual experience, gives it no support. But it is a mighty convenient phrase, this "lowering of resistance," and it saves the old time doctors and the health officers who go off half cocked from admitting that they have fallen into a grievous error in teaching that exposure to cold or wet has something to do with the causation of certain infections, especially certain the respiratory infections.

From our present scientific knowledge of immunity we may assume:

1. Exposure to cold and wet has no demonstrable influence upon an individual's immunity to respiratory infections.
2. The ultraviolet rays of sunlight seem to aid the development of immunity, especially immunity against infections of the upper respiratory tract.
3. A liberal supply of vitamin D (as in cod liver oil, the liver oils of fish generally and the body fat of marine animals like the whale, seal and walrus which feed on fish or other marine animals) seems essential for the development of the optimum immunity against respiratory infections.
4. There is little or no scientific ground for the theory that any such condition or influence as fatigue, exposure to cold or wet, renders an individual more susceptible to infection.

tific evidence that the degree of immunity an individual has acquired can be seriously lowered by any temporary fault of hygiene or unhealthy environment, although unfavorable factors do prevent or retard the development of immunity.

Please paste these four scientific conclusions in your hat or somewhere for safe keeping until our next quarrel. We are going to hang some sound advice on them. Meanwhile, if you run across any scientifically disposed person who can or will take issue with any of these conclusions, I'll be happy to hear from him.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Dad Wins Ten Maybe

One Sunday during the winter I sat in church with wet feet through services which lasted 1½ hours. As a result, I now have a beautiful cold. Father says I did not catch cold by getting wet feet. I say I did. We've decided to let you decide. (There is a $10 bet involved.) (O. E. B.)

Answer—This looks like taking candy away from a baby. But maybe the bet is that of course I'll say father is right. If that's the bet I'll say father deserves to lose. Father ought to have known what I'd say. As betting commissioner I usually ask 10 per cent of the winnings.

Prospective Admiral
I have been wearing glasses in school since last week for near-sightedness. The doctor says my eyes are not in bad condition, but he could not say whether I could ever do without glasses. I have a chance to enter the naval academy in June. I can pass the eye test 20-20. They will not accept a candidate whose eyesight requires glasses. Do you think my eyesight can be corrected by any means by June or even a year from June? The doctor told me to wear the glasses only in school but I feel I need them when out in the open. Is there anything I can do besides glasses to improve my sight? (O. W. C.)

Answer—There is no other means than glasses, fitted while the eyes are under the effect of "drops," and in moderate cases, after adolescence, removing the glasses for constant use and wearing them only for close work. This, apparently, your doctor directed. Better follow the doctor's advice. The idea is, if the coats of the eye are in fair condition, to give the eyes some exercise for distant vision. This would be, only an injury for near vision.

Iodin
In advising iodine for the prevention of simple goiter, do you mean the ordinary iodine sold in drug stores, marked "80 per cent alcohol"? I have tried several stores, but they say this is the only kind obtainable without a prescription. I have used it, but quit because I was fearful lest it do more harm than good. (Mrs. P. L. H.)

Answer—Tincture of iodine (commonly spelled iodine), the ordinary brown liquid which is universally employed as a first aid antiseptic for minor wounds and for painting on the skin over sore swelling (as a counterirritant), is the iodine I advise. One drop of this may be taken in a glassful of better a pint of drinking water once a week by child or adult for the purpose of preventing goiter or for

YOUR BOY AND YOUR GIRL

By ARTHUR DEAN, SC. D.
The Parent Counsellor

Dr. Dean will answer all signed letters pertaining to parents' problems with their boys and girls. Writers' names are never printed. Only questions of general interest answered in this column, but all letters will be answered by mail if written in ink and a stamp, self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Address: Arthur Dean, in care of this paper.

Oh! No.

You are very optimistic about youth. Too much so, eh?

PESSIMIST.

Someone has said: A pessimist is one who has known too many optimists. I repeat: Youth of today stands up better under the present great temptations I believe, than youth of yesterday could have stood if it had similar temptations. Young people of today need to be much more decent and honest than we older pessimists and optimists had to be.

Don'tcha remember, "Pessimist," way back when, "I and I were young? Our day had its 'wild and wicked' books about terrible Indians and stage coach robberies; its 'wicked plays' about Sapphires and Scarlet Letters; its 'wicked two seaters' where boys and girls 'could actually go riding together' (yes, and at the terrible speed of nine miles an hour); its 'perfectly dreadful girls' who rode astride bicycles with their tails up?"

Our day had its temptations, too. Some according to their own tale, resisted Satan's offerings. Some, if we listen to what others say, were no better than the victims of today. Youth did not drink then, as openly as now. But obviously it didn't have such fine upstanding, adult flask-toters as examples as youth has today.

In the good (but not too good) old days, youth didn't discuss sex and moral (or immoral) standards as much or as openly as is done today. Do not forget this frankness has its healthy as well as unhealthy side.

Beams and Codfish
For the young or old, Sunday began with Saturday night baked beans and brown bread and closed Sunday night when the children helped mother "get the clothes ready to soak." Today Sunday begins when father starts for the golf course and little Willie starts for Sunday school. And yet with it all I am firmly convinced that the youth of today is as religious, in the best sense, as those youths who, in the brave days of old, were required to sit on the seventh day with folded hands.

Youth, today, reasons a lot on religious questions. He (or she) goes deep into analysis—sometimes so deep that he loses all sense of proportion and finds "reasons" for unworthy conduct. Youth is as glib as youth of a generation ago. But youth, today and pity 'tis true—needs a much stronger character to withstand the temptations which "modern" adults put in the way. Youth doesn't publish vice "art" magazines. Youth is not behind the bootlegging business. Youth does not write salacious plays. Oldersters do these things.

OUR CONVERSATION CORNER

A Service Column
(Editor's Note)—How about writing a letter to Arthur Dean? If you are a mother he will help you on your boy and girl problems. If you are a boy he will give you good vocational advice and help you to discover what you are best fitted to do in this world. If you are a girl he will give you a man's angle on a lot of little problems which come up in a girl's life.

Doctor Dean, through his personal service column, touches the heads and hearts of the readers of this newspaper. There is no charge except a stamped, self-addressed return envelope. Write today to Dr. Arthur Dean, care of this paper.

HAROLD IS BORN

My husband teases our little girl of seven and says by keeping it up he will be able to break her of crying, which inevitably follows the teasing. The child's misery and resentment grows daily. Am I right in saying that the little youngster is having instilled in her heart a veritable hatred of her father that may never be forgiven?

TRYING MOTHER.
Answer—I know of nothing which will establish permanent hatred more than the teasing of a small child. Can you tell me of an adult living who does not bear resentment against some older person that teased him wickedly when he was young?

Allowance for Children
How much of an allowance should a child of ten have?

DAD.
If it is agreeable to you, Dad, I should like to put this question before the audience—as it were—and ask for views of other Dads and Mothers before I tell all about this important plank in my platform. Here are some questions to consider. What is the object of an allowance for children? Is it to put a limit on their expenditures so they don't strain the family pocketbook? Is it to teach them thrift, self-reliance, and the value of money? Should an allowance be given outright or should some service around the house be required so that the child learn at an early age to give value received? Does an allowance given in exchange for "chores" develop character? Should a child be required to save a definite part of his allowance or should he do with it as he pleases? At what age should the allowance be started, if at all? Should it be large enough to provide for one "movie" per week or more? Candy once a week, or oftener? What do you say, parents? Let's hear your views.

The Marriage Game

As Played to a Decision Every Day By Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hatton

ON THE FARM

MR. AND MRS. ARNOLD HATTON
HER PLAY: Why is it you never have a new necktie? I remember when you used to come and see me Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday nights, before we were married, you always had a nice new fresh necktie and I thought then it was so nice you were particular about such things. But now you never get a new necktie—the crop that your aunts and uncles and cousins send you at Christmas time seem to satisfy you for a year. Why don't you—

HIS COUNTER PLAY: Say, listen: I have something more important on my mind than whether I need a new necktie or not. When I was calling on you Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday nights, it was different. Your fond popper was paying for the electric lights and the coal and the rent and everything. A married man who pays attention to his repertoire of neckties is the sort of a married man who doesn't stay married long. What's that?

THE REFEREE: He is rather right, we think; and it is his day.

A REGULAR SCOUT

Copyright, 1926, by R-C Pictures Corp.

THE STORY THUS FAR.
Fred Blake, when his mother's murderer dies peculiarly, leaves for Sierra to wreak vengeance on the Monroe, whose long-lost son the dead man was supposed to be. He falls in with Buddy Monroe and his Boy Scout Troop. At the ranch, weakened by the sweetness of Mrs. Monroe and June, her daughter, he leaves abruptly. Buddy, going with his troop on an escort of Mr. White, is caught hanging over an abyss, and the Scouts get the departing Fred to the rescue.

The lariat was tied tightly to Silver's body. Silver, obedient to Fred's whispered plea, had stiffened his forelegs powerfully, and now stood like a statue of marble. A bullet would not have moved him. His master's word was law obeyed through love and understanding.

Fred grasped the rope reaching from Silver's body, over the edge of the chasm, and holding up the boy's inert form, and hand over hand, he reached the edge of a lower ledge, on which a group of Boy Scouts were crouched, watching the scene with grim eyes, quiet, tense. "STOP!" shouted Fred, and the rope again grew taut and firm as an iron band. Silver had once more obeyed orders.

Swinging up and down, gathering momentum, risking the tearing of the rope at any instant, Fred finally gathered up enough pendulum-like force to shoot him, and his limp burden toward the lip of the ledge on which the Scouts were waiting. Then—with a mighty effort

Willing hands grasped him and pulled him to safety. . . .

CHAPTER XII THE SUMMONS
Fred Blake walked slowly out of the Monroe ranch-house, clucked to Silver, who walked obediently outside, and mounted. Around the corner of the bunk-house appeared two figures. They were Lige Connor and Chuck Wilson, smiling broadly.

"Well, well!" cried Lige. "Thought you'd been kidnapped for a while, we did. How's Buddy?"

Fred nodded. "Fine, Lige," he said quietly.

Chuck Wilson took a great liberty. He had noticed the deepened lines of worry on Fred's lean, bronzed face. He approached shamefacedly, pulling a suddenly reluctant Lige along. His broad, ham-like hand on the saddle horn, he peered up into Fred's face and said in a low voice:

"We—Lige an' I—that is—" he said desperately—"well, it's this way, Fred, ole man. We sorta figured, Lige an' I, that yuh had some big worry on yer mind, or that yuh wuz in trouble o' some sort, and we couldn't help yuh in some way. 'Course we know tain't any o' our danged business," he continued hastily, "but we jest sorta thought we'd like t'help."

Fred's face was a study. For a moment he said nothing, then leaning down he slapped Chuck resoundingly on the shoulder. His voice was curiously choked as he spoke. "Trouble is—yuh're too darned good t'uh me, you fellows. Thanks, boys. I'll mean through it myself." And crying savagely to Silver, he shot off at a tremendous pace toward the nearby hills. . . .

He found a secluded angled rock, among the great jagged rocks, dropped wearily on Silver's back and sat down. His face was a welter of misery. They were all so wonderful to him. Chuck, Lige, Mrs. Monroe—June.

It had been a terrible day. After the first excitement of his daring rescue of Buddy had worn away, and he had carried the limp, hurt form of the boy through the night to the steps of the Monroe house, where the two women stood waiting for him, terror and anxiety on their faces, Fred had felt that his cup of misery was full to overflowing. There had been no hint of resentment, of anger, of injustice felt and bitterly opposed, in the attitude of the two women. They had greeted him with sympathy, taken the bruised Buddy from his arms, carried him tenderly up to his room. And then, with these two women, Western bred, mountain trained, bustling about preparing bandages, warm water, liniments for the injured boy, Fred had been left in the room with the slowly awakening child whom he had saved. Buddy opened his eyes, saw Fred, and smiled.

"Fred," he called weakly, and Fred had dropped on the bed beside the boy, black despair in his heart. (To be continued.)

KING RICHARD I.

By Dr. Elliot Shoring, The Noted Historian

RICHARD DETERMINED TO MAKE ONE MORE DESPERATE EFFORT TO STRIKE A DECISIVE BLOW FOR JERUSALEM, SO THAT HE WOULD THEN FEEL FREE TO RETURN HOME. WE ARE REMINDED OF THE GREAT NAPOLEON IN RICHARD'S NEXT ACTION, BECAUSE THE "LITTLE CORPORAL," WHEN IN DINE STRAITS, WAS WONT TO SECURE A GREAT MILITARY VICTORY AND SO REHABILITATE HIS FORTUNES. THIS RICHARD NOW DID. IT WAS NEAR THE END OF MAY IN THE YEAR 1192, WHEN RICHARD, AFTER PLACING GARRISONS IN THE COAST CITIES, WITH THE REMAINDER OF HIS FORCES SET OUT FROM JAFFA TOWARD JERUSALEM. THIS ACTION IN A GREAT DEGREE REVIVED THE WARRING SPIRITS OF HIS TROOPS AND FILLED THEM WITH NEW HOPES. FOR A TIME ALL WENT WELL, AND LITTLE OPPOSITION WAS ENCOUNTERED. FOR THE SARACENS HAD WITHDRAWN TO JERUSALEM AND WERE THERE BUSILY ENGAGED IN STRENGTHENING THE FORTIFICATIONS FOR THE IMPENDING CONFLICT.

RICHARD'S FAVORABLE SITUATION NOW CHANGED ABRUPTLY. THE COUNTRY THROUGH WHICH THEY PASSED WAS DRY AND BARREN. THE WEATHER INTENSELY HOT AND UNHEALTHFUL. THE ARMY SUFFERED TERRIBLE PRIVATION FROM THIRST AND THE SCORCHING SUN. FAMINE PREVAILED. LARGE NUMBERS OF THE SOLDIERS FELL SICK AND WERE UNABLE TO ENDURE THE STRAIN OF THE MARCH. TO INCREASE THE DIFFICULTIES, THE SARACENS HAD DEVASTATED THE COUNTRY THROUGH WHICH RICHARD AND HIS TROOPS MUST MARCH.

80 PRESENT AT SILVER TEA OF SOCIAL LEAGUE

Unusual charm was lent the Silver Tea of the Social League of the First Methodist church here yesterday afternoon by a highly entertaining program which was witnessed by 80 guests.

A humorous burlesque in two acts, "Suppressed Desire" was presented under the direction of Mrs. C. C. Holbrook. The characters were as follows: Steven Brewster, Mrs. C. C. Holbrook, Mrs. William Schmidt, and Mrs. Clifton Jones. Mrs. John Griffin sang two solos and Mrs. Myrtle Smith entertained with a few piano solos. Vocal solos were sung by Mrs. James Stuart. Delightful refreshments were served after the program. Proceeds of the tea will go to the organ fund, the treasurer for which is Mrs. J. O. Forbes.

Parish Meeting Of Trinity Church To Be Tomorrow

A parish meeting of the congregation of Trinity church, corner of Washington and Nichol avenues has been called for 7:30 p. m. Thursday, March 31.

Archdeacon Noel Porter will preside and a full meeting of the vestry and members of the church is desired.

The Rev. O. M. Bailey, who has accepted a position on Grace Cathedral staff is resigning as Curate at Trinity, and the Rev. Milton R. Terry is assuming the work as the regular Vicar. While Mr. Bailey has been in charge of the work he has steadily grown in favor and respect and it is with deep regret that the congregation bids him farewell. However, Mr. Terry will be welcomed cordially, inasmuch as he is already well and favorably known in the Point.

The meeting Thursday evening is, therefore, in the nature of a reception to both the coming and departing clergymen, as well as a business meeting for the discussion of plans for a new parish house.

MISS SANFORD RETURNS FROM LOS ANGELES

Having spent a delightful vacation in the south, Miss Azalea Sanford charming daughter of Mrs. W. H. Sanford has returned to her home here. During her stay in the south she stayed with the Fergusons of Los Angeles, near the Wilshire Country club. Mr. Ferguson is one of the directors of the Pacific Steamship company. Miss Sanford obtained first hand information on methods used in the realty business, by attending several real estate subdivisions openings in the south. Miss Sanford also had the pleasure of seeing the photoplay, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" in the making at the Universal studios. She was conducted through the studio by Crawford, who was the son of Mrs. Crawford, a former teacher in the Lincoln grammar school here. A visit to Frank Geritz, prominent Richmond artist was also paid by Miss Sanford, who announces that he is to be married on April 21 to Miss Heinz, a musician and lecturer on orchestration.

N.D.G.W. HOLD BENEFIT WHIST

A highly successful whist party was held last night by Richmond parlor No. 147, N. D. G. W., in Redmen's hall, which netted a neat sum to be applied to the benefit fund of the parlor for homeless children. Mrs. Georgia Curry was chairman in charge of arrangements for the occasion.

At the close of the whist playing and award of prizes, refreshments were served.

Winners of the games in their chronological order were: Mr. A. E. Hawkins, Mr. Lee, George Coffey, Mrs. M. J. Merling, Raymond Hunter, Blanche Holland, Mrs. C. H. Xavier, Mrs. F. Spersich, Mrs. P. Malovos, Mrs. R. F. Coffey, Mr. H. Murphy, Emma Morelli, and the door prize, Mr. R. H. Cunningham. Mr. Cunningham was in charge of the event and arranged the details.

TAHOE COUNCIL HOLDS WHIST PARTY HERE

Tahoe council of Pocahontas held one of the most enjoyable social evenings in a long time at Mose hall last night, with Louise Gillan, Pocahontas, presiding.

The committee for the dance to be given on April 5 reported progress on the arrangements. On April 26 another dance will be given for the delegates to the great council to be held in August at Stockton.

A birthday supper of ravioli and many tempting fixings was enjoyed last night, the birthday being Louise Gillan, Mrs. Brown, Miss Edith Rossi and Mrs. Thomas. The supper was served by the past officers.

Third Degree Is Conferred On Alpha Class

The third degree was conferred upon a class of candidates of Alpha lodge of Masons last night by the Past Masters' Degree exemplifiers, an organization composed of past masters of East Bay Masonic lodges. The aim of the group is to promote Masonic fellowship and to exemplify degree work for all East Bay lodges. They presented an entertainment and in turn were treated to a supper by the Alpha lodge.

Musgeteats Hold Enjoyable Whist Party

Members of the Musgeteats club enjoyed whist games and a social time last night at a meeting in the South Richmond clubhouse.

Prizes were won by W. B. Mayo, Mrs. Daisy Mayo, and the consolation by Joe La Londe. An hours dancing followed, and in its turn came the refreshments. The next meeting of the club will be held in the home of Mrs. and Mrs. H. K. Martin, with Miss Jane Martin as hostess.

Trip Around The World Is Staged By F. B. Here

An interesting departure from the ordinary meeting was staged last night by the Fraternal Brotherhood in its Trip Around the World. The evening's diversification was under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Brown.

The party met at 7:30 at Musicians' hall and proceeded directly to the home of Mrs. Vincent at Ferry Point, representing Scotland, where games were played and refreshments served. The home of Mrs. Anna Holmes on Twenty-eighth street was the next stop, depicting Holland, where, after the Dutch custom, the guests removed coats and entered the house walking backward. Here, too, refreshments were served and games played.

The party then returned to Musicians' hall which was decorated with flags and bunting to represent America. Following the serving of refreshments here, the guests repaired to their homes. Next Tuesday's meeting of the Fraternal Brotherhood will be a public whist party in Musicians' hall, in charge of which are Mrs. Anna Holmes, Mrs. Mary Moyle and Mrs. Bigley.

CLARA BOW IN 'IT' STARS AT THE CALIFORNIA

Clara Bow's initial starring production, "IT," is apt to start a storm of mental measuring. After seeing the picture, men and women may well wonder whether they possess "IT," that marvelous power which Elinor Glyn claims can attract people against their better judgment.

If you imagine you have "IT," ask yourself the following questions: Are you at all self-conscious? Have you a magnetic appeal? Are you a mysterious lover? Are you confident of yourself? Have you faith in yourself? Can anything influence you? Are you fearless? Have you individuality? Are you true to yourself? Are you capable of a deep love? Upon answering these queries and battling 100 per cent, be assured that you have "IT."

Madame Glyn has imbued the character played by Miss Bow with a superfluous amount of "IT." In fact she well, come on down to the California theatre today or tomorrow and find out for yourself. Antonio Moreno plays opposite the star. Clarence Badger directed for Paramount.

Other features on the same program include "Easy Payments," a comedy based on "The Married Life of Helen and Warren"; a Hodge Podge; "International News," and Larry Canelo at the organ.

50 Mira Vistas Protest Change

The city planning commission will hold a hearing next Monday evening at 6:45 in the council chambers of the city hall to take cognizance of objections to a rezoning of the Mira Vista district so as to permit construction of business buildings at corners of Barrett and McLaughlin avenue a block east of San Pablo.

A protest bearing the names of 50 individuals who objected to an extension of the business district was filed following notice that Earl F. Steele and Albert Hamnerberg had applied for permission to erect business buildings on the southwest and northwest corners of McLaughlin and Barrett avenues. These residents claim that they located in the district with the understanding that Mira Vista would remain an exclusive residential district.

U.S. BLAMED FOR CRIME OF EX WAR VETS

(By Universal Service)

FREEMONT, Ill., March 29.—Judge William J. Emerson in circuit court here today, blamed the government for the crimes of many of the ex-soldiers.

Frank Sturdevant was arraigned before him on a charge of passing worthless checks. He learned that the thirty-third division overseas, had been passed and shell-shocked.

"Find a place for this man in some government hospital," Judge Emerson declared, "for I am not going to send him to jail."

Sturdevant said he had a wife and two children to support. He asserted his government allowance had been cut from $60 a month to $8, although he was unable to do any heavy work.

WALLY AND HIS PALS

Woman Gun Toter Couldn't Pull The Trigger

(By Universal Service)

PARIS, March 29.—Unless complications set in, the lives of Countess De Janze, and Raymond De Trafford, will be saved, doctors declared tonight.

The principals in the tragedy refuse to speak. So do relatives of the couple, although Count De Janze, Alice's husband, informed Universal Service that he met De Trafford only last August at a party given by Lady Hay, the former Lady Gordon, at her home in the Kenya Colony, Africa.

CHICAGO, March 29.—When Countess De Janze was pretty Alice Silverthorne of local society, she was known to carry a small revolver with her often, it was learned today.

Through friends here, it was recalled that the girl who shot De Trafford as he kissed her and then tried to kill herself, in Paris had once threatened to "end it all" when a social light here.

In the presence of a friend, she telephoned to a young man, it is said, and holding a revolver up to her head, declared:

"I am going to kill myself." But she didn't. Nor did she try, according to the story which leaked out today from a reliable quarter.

Pioneer of State Dies in San Jose

Mrs. Phoebe A. Johnson, mother of Mrs. James P. Arnold, of Richmond, passed away in her home in San Jose, after an illness of several months. It was learned yesterday. Mrs. Johnson was one of the early pioneers in California, having crossed the plains in 1852.

She is survived by the following sons and daughters: Orin C. Harshel and Mrs. Bertha Arnold of San Jose, E. F. Johnson, of Fresno, and Mrs. James P. Arnold, of Richmond. She leaves 11 grand-daughters and three great-grandchildren. Funeral services will be conducted from the Hocking and Williams parlors at Eighth and Santa Clara street, in San Jose, at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Interment will follow in Oak Hill cemetery.

Father of Irving Ashcraft Passes

Head of one of the best known families of southeast Arkansas, William F. Ashcraft, father of Irving M. Ashcraft, local advertising man, passed away at his home in Pine Bluff, Arkansas, at the age of 71 years. Irving Ashcraft reported yesterday.

Ashcraft is survived by his widow, and five sons, Irving M., E. L. of Altheimer, Ark.; R. B. of Little Rock, Thomas R. of Little Rock, and Z. M. of Union City, Tenn.; and one daughter, Mrs. F. I. West, of Pine Bluff.

MONTE BLUE IS HERO OF FILM AT RICHMOND

Warner Bros. production of "Across the Pacific," adapted by Darryl F. Zanuck, from Charles D. Blaney's story, starring Monte Blue and directed by Roy Del Ruth, is the second picture success on which this trio have collaborated.

The first was Warner Brothers' production of "Hogan's Alley," the story of a young heavyweight champion of the world who sacrificed his pugilistic career by smashing his fist on the jaw of the villain to save the girl he loved and became a plumber.

"Across the Pacific" is a melodramatic historical special dealing with the stirring events of the insurrection of Aguinaldo in the Philippine Islands which followed the Spanish-American war. Monte plays the part of a Southern boy who is treacherously robbed of his estate and disgraced by a scandal.

He leaves for the Philippine Islands without seeking his swag, heart, at his father's suggestion, and as a private there is instrumental in bringing about the capture of Aguinaldo by an intrigue in which he must get information from a native girl by pretending to love her. His sweetheart, who has come to the islands with her father, a colonel in the army, thinks the affair a real one and pleads with Monte, but he cannot tell her the truth.

The supporting cast consists of Jane Winton, Myrna Loy, Charles Stevens, Tom Wilson, Walter McGrath, Herbert Pryor, Ed Kennedy, Theodore Lorch, Sojlin, Walter Rogers and Edmund Fortune. "Across the Pacific" comes to the Richmond theatre today for a two-day run.

Other features include "Take Your Time," a Mack Sennett comedy; "Sportlight," and "Prizma."

COMMITTEE OF SENATE OKEHS SHARKEY BILL

The senate judiciary committee has reported the Sharkey bill giving cities the right to lease harbor properties for a period of 50 years with a "do pass" recommendation. This action justifies the strong hope that the bill will meet with favor in the state legislature.

The bill was reported out of committee after a hearing which was attended by Mayor Mattie Chandler, Councilman W. W. Scott, City Attorney Thomas M. Carlson, all of Richmond, and Fred D. Parr, head of the Parr Terminal company, who will be granted a 50-year lease on Richmond municipal docks and harbor properties if the bill becomes law.

A ten-year lease is now held by Parr on the property which is limited to grant. The city's right to lease tidelands acquired from the state under the Owens act was validated last week by the adoption of the Easley bill by both houses of the legislature.

Little Hope Is Held Out For Rescue Of Americans Isolated In The Interior

Indemnity For Lives of 32 Chinese Demanded Of British Consul

centered upon the report of the British consul in Shanghai on the Nanking atrocities. The report is expected at any time, although it was not received at the foreign office at a late hour tonight. Its publication is not expected before tomorrow afternoon.

While the report is not yet at hand, sufficient information was received in official circles tonight to indicate that it will be of an appalling nature, in regard to the outrages committed against British and other foreign women, including Japanese and Americans.

Report Atrocities
The United States government has already communicated the report of its consul general on the Nanking atrocities. It is understood that the report brands the atrocities as deliberate acts by the Cantonese. The Japanese report published in Tokyo today declares that the Cantonese stripped the Japanese women and that the British women fared even worse.

Man, This Odor Just Keels Them Over

By EDWARD M. RUTTENBER (By Universal Service)

NEW YORK, March 29.—Men with perfumed coat lapels are becoming rather common in New York despite the fact that scented dandies have never been especially popular. The moderns are taking more liberties in the matter of perfume than preceding generations.

Perfumed boulevardiers of all ages have been taught to employ their favorite odors by the owners of vending machines that may be found in the smoking rooms of many of the finely-equipped modern theatres. For 5 or 10 cents a man may spray his pocket lapel with the latest and most popular thing in extracts.

The women have long used the heavy perfumes in the battle of the sexes and it is claimed that the men are learning to retaliate in kind. Perfume is closely associated with romance and many of the more expensive brands used by the women drug the senses to some extent and serve as a first aid in inducing backward men to pop the question.

"Business men interested in promoting the use of perfume by men advance the argument that through all the ages courtiers have employed scents. The fact that perfumes ultimately became the favorite weapons of women exclusively is said to be largely due to the fact that men considered them rather effeminate."

Christian Church Will Hold Mid Week Services

Baptismal services for a large group of new members will be conducted tonight at the regular mid-week services at the First Christian church by Rev. Frank A. Woten, pastor. Rev. Woten will also speak on the subject of baptism as taught by the New Testament. All former members of the church are asked to be present to welcome the new members.

Yangtze Valley Is Center Of Trouble Area In War Swept China

valley of all Americans before the storm breaks in its full fury.

Hankow—Danger Point
Hankow is one of the danger points. Latest official reports place the number of Americans there as 26 men, 11 women and 9 children.

All foreign banks in Hankow are closed. Nearly 350 Americans have already left this city.

Trouble at Wuhu
At Wuhu there is considerable trouble. Agitators are stirring up the native Chinese against foreigners, using most inflammatory words to achieve their end.

Americans and British in Wuhu are being insulted right and left, and subjected to grave indignities. The evacuation of Wuhu continues steadily.

She Took Her Shots Like A Woman

(By Universal Service)

LOS ANGELES, March 29.—An assault charge against Joe Benjamin, pugilist and former husband of Marian Nixon, film actress, was dropped here today in municipal court at the request of prosecuting officials. Miss Nixon, the prosecution's chief witness, was unwilling to appear against Benjamin, and though there was a warrant issued for her arrest, it was not served. Benjamin is said to have gone to his ex-wife's home, fired several shots and broken a window when he was refused admittance.

Make Reservations Border's Open Now

(By Universal Service)

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, March 29.—Re-enforced border patrols on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande tonight were maintaining a vigilant observation of the American banks to prevent smuggling of contraband, especially arms and ammunition from the United States, following termination today of the American-Mexican smuggling treaty.

Pending a complete reorganization of the border patrol system, the war department at Mexico City has instructed cavalry commanders stationed at border points to co-operate with customs men, according to dispatches received in Matamoros.

Mexican customs officials said termination of the treaty would have little effect on the American side of the river as practically no results had been obtained through the treaty in stemming the flow of drugs, aliens and liquors.

Police Cry "Check" To Golf Fiend

(By Universal Service)

LOS ANGELES, March 29.—A passion for golf led P. W. Schofield into a life of crime, according to a report made here today by Probation Officer C. E. Bartoo. Schofield began serving a term in the county jail of two and one-half years for issuing worthless checks.

The probation officer's report described Schofield as a golf fiend who spent his illegally obtained money attending tournaments and buying natty golf clothes.

All Americans In Rioting Provinces Have Been Warned to Leave

would co-operate with the other foreign units but would not be under the permanent command of foreign officers.

Shantung Turns
Shantung province is now aflame and all Americans have been warned to leave. This is far north of Shanghai and in the Yangtze river valley, stronghold of the Cantonese, who have committed every reported outrage.

It indicated, officials declared, that masses of the Shantung forces, which until a few days ago were the principal defenders of foreigners and were in the field against the Cantonese, have now joined the nationalist movement.

Transportation Demoralized

The American consul at Tsinanfu, Alexander G. Swaney, reported that Americans are being evacuated from southern Shantung, although railroad transportation is demoralized. Swaney also reported that he is attempting to evacuate a group of 16 Americans from Hwaiyuan in the province of Anhwei. This is north of Hankow.

The Honan province is also "flame," according to a message from American Minister MacMurray, at Peking. This is also north of the Yangtze valley and marks a spread of the anti-foreign demonstrations.

Sends Warning
MacMurray said that he had sent the following warning to all American missions, individuals and companies in the districts of northern Honan:

"In view of the general civil warfare, the legation earnestly advises all American citizens to withdraw from all districts of Honan south of the Yellow river."

Rear Admiral H. H. Hough, commander of the Yangtze patrol of American warships, reports that the situation at Wuhu is again alarming.

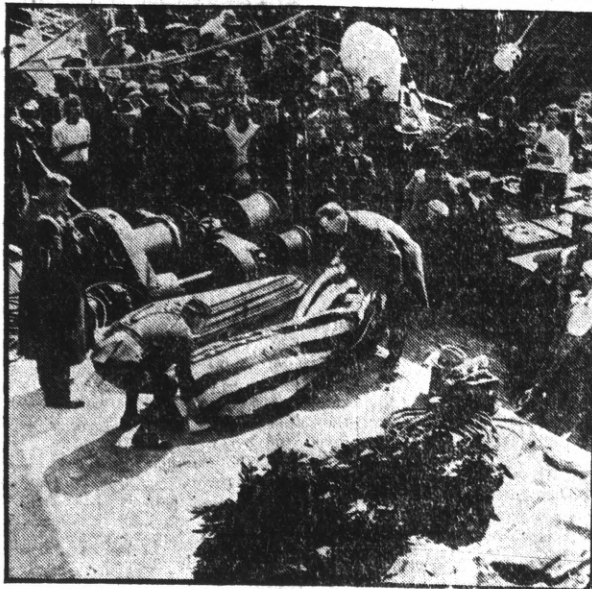

Wuhu developed into a hot-bed of anti-foreign outbreaks about a month ago. American ships were fired upon and two merchant vessels, seized by the Chinese, were boarded by a detachment from Admiral Hough's ships and restored to their commanders. This is the first time since then that trouble has occurred there.

Rites Are Held For Mrs. Westlake

Final rites for Mrs. Mary Jane Westlake, former well known Richmond matron, who passed away at the home of her daughter in Berkeley at the age of 78 years, will be held from the Truman residence chapel at Telegraph avenue and Thirteenth street, Oakland, this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Westlake is survived by her late husband, W. M. Westlake, and the following sons and daughters: Mrs. P. B. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Helen M. Nash, Mrs. E. S. Boot, W. J. Westlake, and W. L. Westlake.

10,000 Smokes, A Good Record In Any Office

(By Universal Service)

SEWARD, Alaska, March 29.—Two of the principal volcanic peaks in the Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes, southwestern Alaska, are emitting great volumes of smoke, according to the crew of the steamer Starr, which arrived here this evening. Light earth tremors felt along the Alaska peninsula indicate the possibility of an early eruption.

Owing to ice conditions, the Starr was prevented from entering False Pass and identifying the peaks.

The Vandal Who Did This Knew His Ashes

(By Universal Service)

CHICAGO, March 29.—When vandals entered his home last night, they took everything, Morley F. Fox reported to the authorities today. Included in what they pilfered were the ashes of his wife, dead now for three weeks, an original photograph of Lincoln, a box of matches and some old slippers.

PAROLED MAN LOSES FIGHT FOR FREEDOM

(By Universal Service)

ALBANY, N. Y., March 29.—Everett A. Hutchings, newspaper man, lost his fight against extradition to California in the court of appeals today.

The court upheld a decision of the appellate division, first department, which reversed an order of Supreme Court Justice Levy, directing the release of Hutchings from the city prison at New York, where he was held after Governor Smith had honored a requisition for his extradition to California in 1926.

Hutchings must serve about three years of a sentence of seven and one-half years imposed on him after conviction for grand larceny in Los Angeles county, California, in 1921. He had served a portion of his term in San Quentin prison when given a parole early in 1925. Under this "ticket of leave" he was under the legal custody of the prison commission of California for one year. His release was predicated partially upon the assumption that a job awaited him in New York state. Directly after leaving prison he came to this state and was employed by John H. Perry of the American Press association.

The record of the court of appeals shows that in November, 1925, the governor of California cancelled his parole alleging that it was obtained upon misrepresentation. Information available here, outside the court, indicates that the parole was cancelled as a result of a political squabble between the governor of California and the district attorney of Los Angeles county.

After Governor Smith granted the application for extradition, Hutchings was arrested in New York city as a fugitive from justice. He had lived there for more than a year with his wife and children.

A writ of habeas corpus was issued subsequently, and he was discharged. The appellate division overruled this decree and is now sustained by the court of appeals.

U. S. CONTROL IN NICARAGUA HELD URGENT

(By Universal Service)

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Permanent military occupation by the U. S. of Central American Republics so long as the present system of nominal self government continues was predicted today by Senator Walter Edge of New Jersey in a frank and formal statement of his observations on a three weeks trip through Central America.

With equal candor Edge declared that "We might just as well accept the fact" that the stationing of marines in Nicaragua is intervention, and expressed his approval of "this type of intervention" and his belief that "it is justified."

She Shakes 'Em Down For Just $100,000

LOS ANGELES, March 29.—Samuel Goldwyn, motion picture producer, today received from Charles B. Cochran, London theatre owner and sport promoter, a cable guarantee of $100,000 for the world premiere of Gilda Gray's first picture and the personal appearance of Miss Gray in London during September.

Goldwyn cabled Cochran that he would discuss the offer with Miss Gray when she comes to Los Angeles from New York to start work on the picture within the next three weeks. In his message, the English theatrical man said that he was sure the London public would give Miss Gray an enthusiastic reception.

'MYSTERY S' BEATS WORLD SPEED RECORD

(By Universal Service)
DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., March 29.—The new world's speed record for automobiles, a 203.79 average over a mile course, written by the flying wheels of Major H. O. D. Segrave's racing machine, the "Mystery S" in the sands of Daytona Beach this morning, was entered late today in the official ledger of the A. A. A.

The official corrected records were approved by the A. A. A. Val Haresnape, secretary of the contest board, Judges T. E. Meyers and Gar Wood, and Tamer Odus Porter.

The American-born English driver, his face raw from the clanking of windblown sand, and his arms aching from the pull of the great steering wheel, was boyishly jubilant over his success. There was no trace of boastfulness in his voice when he declared enthusiastically that although the wind didn't cut his speed, it did throw him from his course and made steering hard, and that on a calm day he would easily have done 212 miles an hour.

The major was in a praising mood. He praised the reception the Americans had given him after his victory.

He liked the cheers of the crowd, and felt honored by the Supreme tribune of an enthusiastic gathering of Americans, paid him when he was lifted like a football hero, on the shoulders of the crowd and borne away in triumph. And he praised that no course in the world compared to it in width, hardness and topographical beauty.

The major however, was frank in reminding the Americans that the new record belonged to Great Britain, insofar as the car and the driver were concerned.

All Nation Card For Friday At El Cerrito

All kinds of varieties of boxers will feature the El Cerrito fight card Friday night. Eddie Dixon, a colored boy, will represent the colored race. Dave White, the Eskimo, will fight for the honor of Alaska. Chief Wahoo will demonstrate that the Redskin can still fight even if they have abolished the tommyhawk. Salvatore Ortega will show that an ex-bull fighter can also make use of boxing gloves. And so on down the line of the card. Fourteen boxers will be paired off. Seven bouts are on tap.

Jack Beasley, the Oakland heavyweight, will face Charlie Martino, also of Oakland. They will box the feature six-round go. Jimmy McDermott of Richmond tackles "Gunner" Woods of Oakland. Mickey Brown of Richmond tackles Bobby Ertle of Oakland. Joe De Maria (poor Joe) has a date with the fighting matador (Salvatore Ortega). What a whale of a go that will be. Dave White, Eskimo, meets Chief Wahoo. The Indian call will be heard all over the house when Wahoo enters the ring.

Charlie Actis takes on Eddie Dixon (formerly Kid Shadow) in the opening bout on the card. Promoter Joe Rossi has been besieged with early reservations, which shows that the fan cannot be lulled with poor shows. Oakland has no show and if they did have many would be here just the same as they are mighty tired of paying three thirty a seat when they see a show at El Cerrito for almost one-half the price.

Every show is drawing better and the rumors are that Rossi is contemplating the building of a new arena that will accommodate greater crowds. Richmond and the surrounding cities here are all taking to boxing strongly and if the El Cerrito boys can deliver shows like they have in the past they need fear little from this section for a strong support at all times.

MELONES POWER HOUSE

A co-operative agreement between the farmers of the Oakdale and South San Joaquin Irrigation Districts and the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, made possible the building of this 36,000 horse power plant. The farmers will receive pay for their stored water passing through the plant at a rate sufficient to pay off a $2,200,000 bond issue and interest in forty years.

California has more miles of electric transmission lines than any other State—32,863 miles. The three States ranking next in order are: New York, 17,567; Pennsylvania, 9,101; Illinois, 7,975.

CONVINCING EVIDENCE

Of the rapid growth of northern California is reflected in the number of new consumers added to the lines of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, which averages about 2500 per month.

Seven new ferryboats on San Francisco Bay are of the new electrically-driven type. Each of five of them has propulsion motors aboard totaling 1,900 horsepower. The driving mechanism of the others is slightly heavier. Oil engines generate electric energy on the boats to supply the motors.

THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA LEADS THE Union in Hydro-Electric Development and is the largest consumer of electricity per capita anywhere in the world.

THE HIGHEST STEEL TOWER

in the world for carrying electric transmission lines is located near Rio Vista, California. It is 459 feet high.

INDUSTRY IS 78.8 PER CENT ELECTRIFIED IN CALIFORNIA.

America Lags In Her Pure Science Says Secretary

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 29.—America lags far behind other countries in pure science research, Secretary of Agriculture Jardine declared before the American Institute of chemists at Yale University tonight.

"No country in the world has made such progress in applied science as the United States, but our record in pure science is not so flattering," said Jardine.

Since 1900, when the Nobel prizes in physics, chemistry and medicine were inaugurated, the United States has received only four of the 76 awards, he pointed out.

Attacks Are Renewed At Wuhu

(By Universal Service)

SPECIAL CABLE DISPATCH
LONDON, March 29.—There have been renewed attacks on American and British citizens at Wuhu, according to advices to the foreign office here tonight.

The reports indicate that the evacuations of foreigners is proceeding rapidly from all sections of China now controlled by the Cantonese.

At Nanking the reports state, the Chinese have mounted guns and trained them on British and American warships. All along the Yangtze river, it is reported, the Chinese are prepared for action.

At Hankow, Cantonese pickets have invaded the French and Japanese concessions. A serious situation exists there, dispatches state.

Coolidge Appointee Is Banker of L. A.

(By Universal Service)

LOS ANGELES, March 29.—Henry M. Robinson, who was appointed by President Coolidge today as chairman of the American delegation to the Geneva economic conference, is president of the First National Bank of Los Angeles.

He was one of the three members of the Dawes commission that worked out the plan for German's reparation payments to the allied nations. During the war he was "dollar a year" man, serving as a member of the council of national defense. He was also a member of the supreme economic council at the Versailles conference.

After this service he was named as a member of the shipping board and was also a representative of

The Best Investment Is In Fong Wan Herbs

4837 Shattuck Ave. Oakland, Cal. July 30, 1926.

Ten years ago I had Malaria which left me with a twinging pain in my left kidney and running around my left side. Before I came to Oakland I had treated with numerous physicians and had been in several hospitals in New York. As I got no relief whatever, I was advised to make a change of climate. I therefore came West, but here I suffered as badly as ever.

Finally a friend urged me to try the FONG WAN HERBS. One week of that treatment gave me wonderful, permanent relief. During the year that has elapsed since I have had absolutely no indications of my former complaints.

How wonderful it seems that the FONG WAN HERBS could thus help me after the doctors and hospitals had failed. I am a barber by trade. Had it not been for the FONG WAN HERB TREATMENTS how could I have earned a living while suffering with those terrible pains?

I am very thankful to the FONG WAN HERB SPECIALIST for what he has done for me and am giving him this testimonial as a token of my gratitude.

MAN SURVIVES SIX STORY FALL FROM BUILDING

(By Universal Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 29.—Carl R. Johnson, 40, a laborer on the new Russ building, plunged six stories to the pavement late today after he had dangled a hundred feet above the ground at the end of a swinging rope for 20 minutes while fellow workers sought to rescue him. Johnson was working on the eighth floor when his duties, according to fellow workers, demanded that he lean from a window. He lost his balance and toppled out.

A block and tackle hung down the wall that had been used to support a swinging scaffold. Johnson grabbed this but was unable to swing himself into a nearby window. He held on for twenty minutes and then fell. He is suffering from a possible double fracture of the skull and other injuries.

You're Crazy If You Take a Whipping!

(By Universal Service)
LOS ANGELES, March 29.—The case of Gerard De Merveux, Hollywood fencing master who is suing Commodore J. Stuart Blackton, film producer, for $25,000 for an asserted "undeserved horsewhipping" was given to the jury at 2:40 o'clock this afternoon. The jury is composed of six men and six women.

Shortly before the arguments were concluded, an insanity complaint was issued against De Merveux at the request of Attorney A. A. Kilder Jr., counsel for Blackton. However, the judge who issued the complaint refused to allow the Frenchman to be arrested until after the case had come to the jury, on the ground that such action might prejudice his verdict.

FIREMEN BALL PROMISES TO BE LIVE EVENT

Under the general chairmanship of Captain S. C. Davidson, the plans are going forward with the view of making the next annual ball of the Firemen one to be long remembered with pleasure.

The floor committee have been making strides toward a few new innovations, which will no doubt be received by the guests of the evening with open arms.

The reception committee is not going to sleep on the job, and according to Capt. Davidson this committee will prove to be the extreme last word in the matter of receiving our guests and making them understand they are with us for the purpose of laying aside all cares and enjoy themselves.

The refreshment feature of this year's festivities is going to be handled by the Fire Department base ball team, and, under the chairmanship of Tom Hathaway the guests will be amply provided for.

The committee on decorations this year will present the large floral ball as in the past, and, distribute floral compliments to the ladies as usual.

Captain Davidson is happy to announce that, the music for this year's torchlight exercises will be presented by Denny Shaw, in company with nine other real artists, which fact, in itself, should be an ample assurance to all lovers of the dance that the evening will be pleasantly passed.
